

GOBI Notifications for Faculty

Each academic department has a library budget for ordering books, ebooks, films, music CDs, and other items. Our primary book vendor is YBP Library Services. They offer a convenient way for faculty to be alerted when books in their disciplines are available for purchase. Your Library Liaison can create a GOBI Notification with the subject areas that interest you. The notices will come to you via email every week or every two, three, or four weeks, as you choose.

The sender of the emails is DoNotReply. You might need to alter settings in your email, so the messages are not sent to spam.

The screenshot shows an email inbox with several entries. Two red circles are drawn around the sender name 'DoNotReply' and the subject line 'GOBI Notification: History - 16 items for period 7/4/2015 - 7/11/2015 cmfische@unc'.
